Visit Wanna for great views over Sleaford Bay and keep your eyes peeled for native birdlife along the cliff tops. Keep an eye on the water below as in the winter months you may even be lucky enough to spot some whales. Next, head to Stamford Hill picnic ground on the other side of the park for morning tea and beautiful views across the harbour. Kick off your shoes for a stroll along Surfleet Beach before travelling to Fisheries Bay where we begin a 14-kilometre scenic coastal drive along Whalers Way. Be wowed by the breathtaking coastline and some of the oldest rocks in Australia. If you love wildlife, the next stop will be a highlight. Mikkira Station is home to the only wild koala colony on the Eyre Peninsula with around 150 koalas living in the many Manna Gum trees. You are likely to see kangaroos and emus here too and explore the historic homestead giving insight into the lives of the pioneers. Back in town we'll have a mouth-watering meal at the Fresh Fish Place and take a stroll around the Port Lincoln Marina and foreshore. See the extraordinary range of both commercial and private fishing vessels of Australia's largest port. By mid-afternoon we'll arrive at Lincoln Estate for wine tastings and to see kangaroos, parrots and other wildlife at Glen Forest Tourist Park. Finish the tour on top of the world at Winters Hill lookout, and after a fantastic day, you will be dropped back at the Port Lincoln Hotel. If a Coffin Bay Experience or a Great White shark adventure is more to your liking, ask us about alternative tour options available in Port Lincoln.
